MISSOULA--

A football game played in October's bright blue weather and other rites of autumn will bring back memories of college days to old grads who return to the University of Montana for Homecoming Oct. 12-14.

Homecoming activities will get under way in the University Center Ballroom at noon Friday, Oct. 12, with a luncheon honoring former members of UM marching bands.

Other Friday events include the dedication of the Mike and Maureen Mansfield Library at 1:30 p.m.; a banquet at the Edgewater Restaurant at 6 p.m. honoring recipients of alumni awards and members of the special reunion classes of 1929, 1954 and 1969, and Singing-on-the-Steps in front of Main Hall at 8:15 p.m.

Homecoming highlights Saturday are the traditional parade at 10 a.m. and the UM-Idaho State football game on Dornblaser Field at 2 p.m.

A Sunday brunch from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the University Center Copper Commons and a noon concert played by Prof. John Ellis on the carillon in Main Hall tower will bring to a close the weekend of fun and nostalgia.

Information about registration for Homecoming is available from the UM Alumni Center, University of Montana, Missoula 59812, (406) 243-5211.
